Open
Source
Automation
Development
Lab eG

OSADL Day

with focus on

"Legal and practical aspects using Open Source software in products"

- Agenda proposal -

Morning session – e.g. 9:00am to 12:00pm

- Open Innovation, Open Source and copyright law

  - What has Open Source to do with Open Innovation?
  - What is "Free Software" and "Open Source software"?
  - Can a company protect its intellectual property despite using Open Source software?
  - Economic and strategic aspects of Open Source software

  - Basics of international copyright law
  - Significance of moral rights of the creator of a work
  - License rights and license obligations
  - Overview of types of Open Source licenses with focus on GPL
  - What is a "derivative work"? What is "copyleft"?

Afternoon session – e.g. 1:00pm to 4:00pm (or on another date)

- Open Source Policy

  - Who is responsible for company compliance and especially license compliance?
  - Importance of input and output gateway
  - Company departments involved in handling of Open Source software in products and related license requirements
  - Presentation of the OSADL Open Source Policy Template

- Practical aspects of copying and distributing Open Source software in a product and how OSADL can support

  - OSADL Open Source License Obligations Checklists Project
  - Software scanning
  - OSSelot: The Open Source Curation Database
  - OSADL Container Base Image
  - Legal FAQ and assessments
  - Networking, seminars, workshops, etc.

- Questions and discussion